EKAW 2010 Call for tutorials

We seek high quality proposals for tutorials about topics related to the conference. Of particular interest are proposals that address one of the following areas:

- Knowledge Management
- Knowledge Engineering and Acquisition
- Knowledge in Use
- Social and Cognitive Aspects of Knowledge Engineering
- Knowledge Management and Engineering by the Masses

Proposals should be sent to v.uren@dcs.shef.ac.uk by May 3rd 2010 and should contain a concise description of the proposed tutorial covering the following aspects on no more than 5 pages

- Title and description of the tutorial topic
- Relation to the topic of the conference
- Short outline of the schedule
- If the tutorial, or a very similar tutorial has been given elsewhere please explain the benefit of presenting it again to the EKAW community.
- Contact information and short C.V.s of the proposers. The c.v. should include information about past experience at presenting tutorials.

For accepted tutorials, camera ready copy of the slides should be sent to v.uren@dcs.shef.ac.uk by 16 August 2010.

Important Dates

Submission of tutorial proposals: 3 May 2010

Notification: 18 May 2010

Slides as camera ready copy to tutorial chair: 16 August 2010

Committee:

Victoria Uren (tutorial chair), OAK Group, Department of Computer Science, University of Sheffield, UK, v.uren@dcs.shef.ac.uk

Trevor Collins, Knowledge Media Institute, The Open University, UK

Kinga Schumacher, DFKI Project Office Berlin, Germany

Vita Lanfranchi, OAK Group, Department of Computer Science, University of Sheffield, UK